

The Easy Way to Pay in Korean Won

Making payments to your educational institution doesn't have to be difficult.

Through your school's trusted financial services partner, you can pay tuition and other fees right from their website, without additional charges. Simply book your payment online through the WU® GlobalPay for Students platform and transfer funds directly from any Hana Bank. Your institution receives your funds in full with complete student information attached for one seamless transaction.

How it works:

Access GlobalPay for Students through your educational institution's website.
